IN SHORT

1 in 4

specific complaints from 14–28 Sep say the captain asked for more than the fare shown in the app (202 of 811).

12–17%

of 2★ reviews every month since May mention it, so it has been steady for months, not a spike.

16 Sep

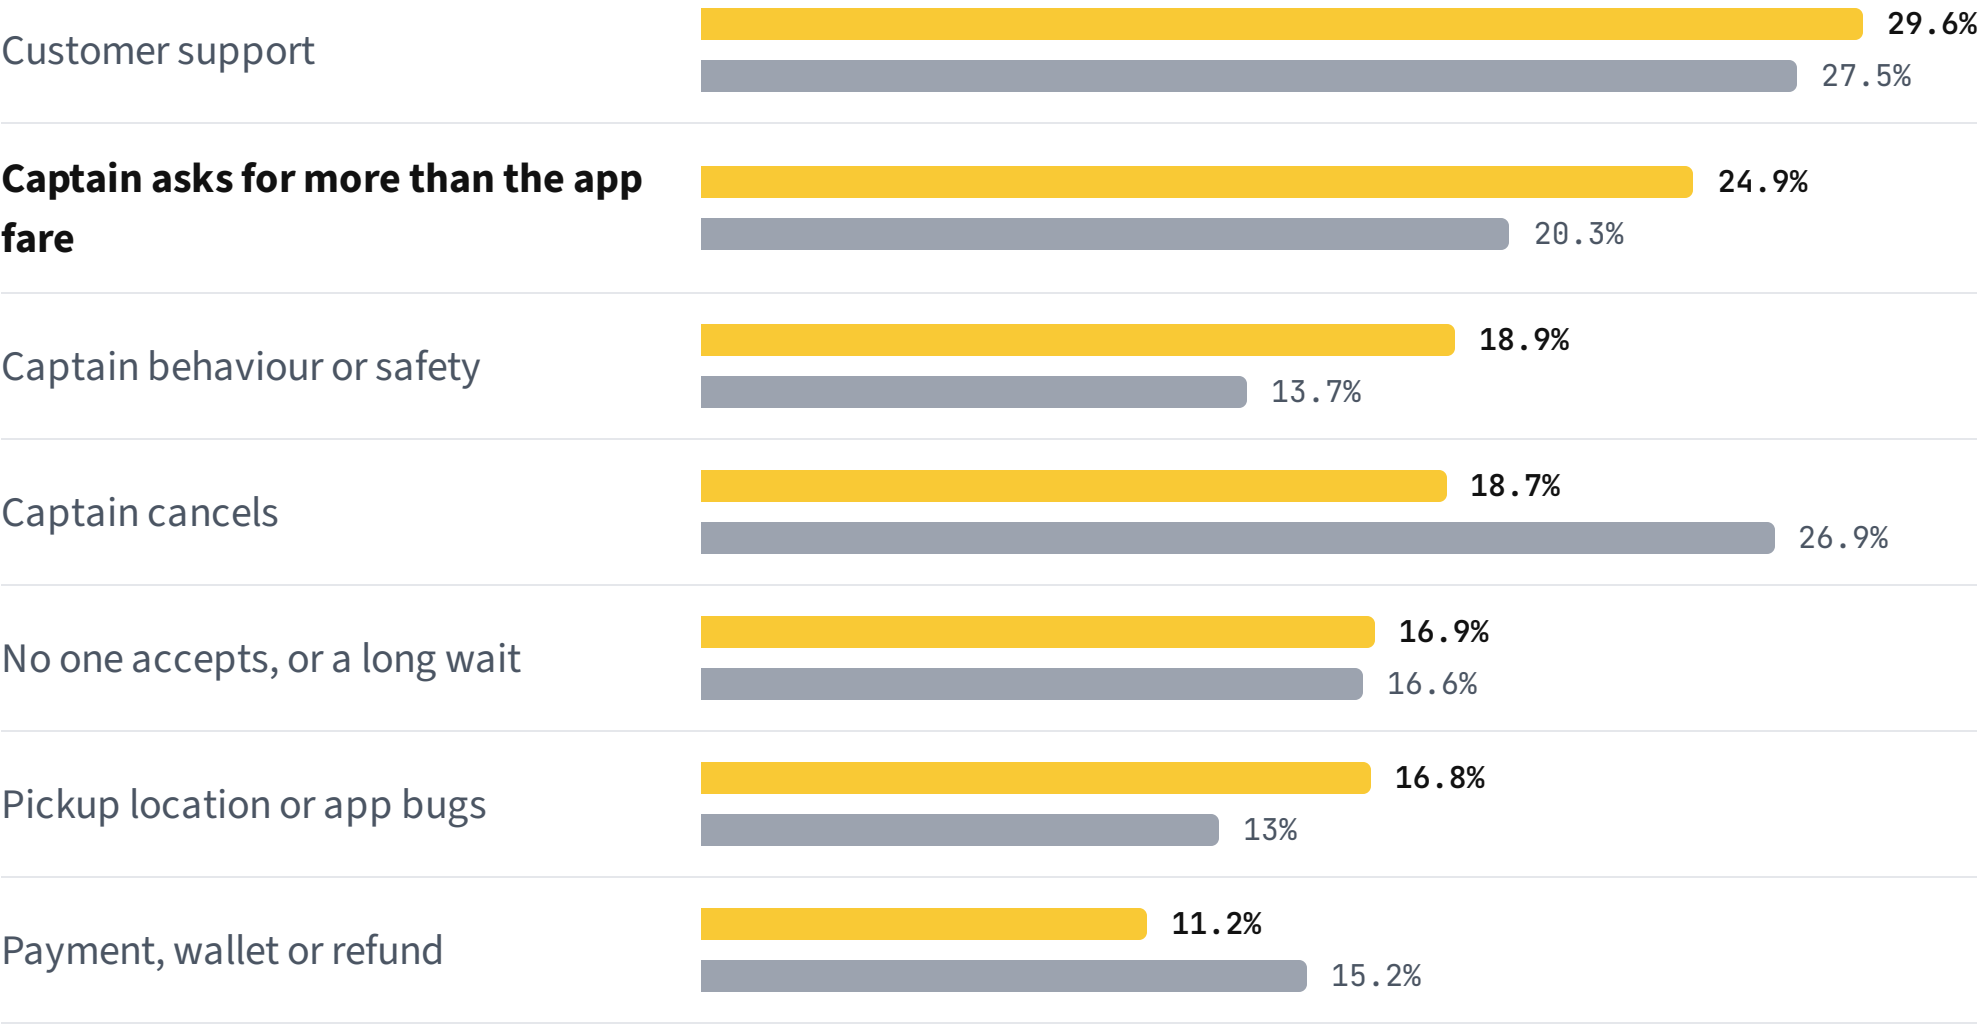

A government order ended pre-ride tips in the app. The reviews point to the other half: extra fare asked for in person.

“We book Rapido based on the fare shown on the app.”

specific Rapido complaints say the captain asked for more than the fare shown in the app

25% vs 20%

the same share at Rapido and at Uber, over the same two weeks

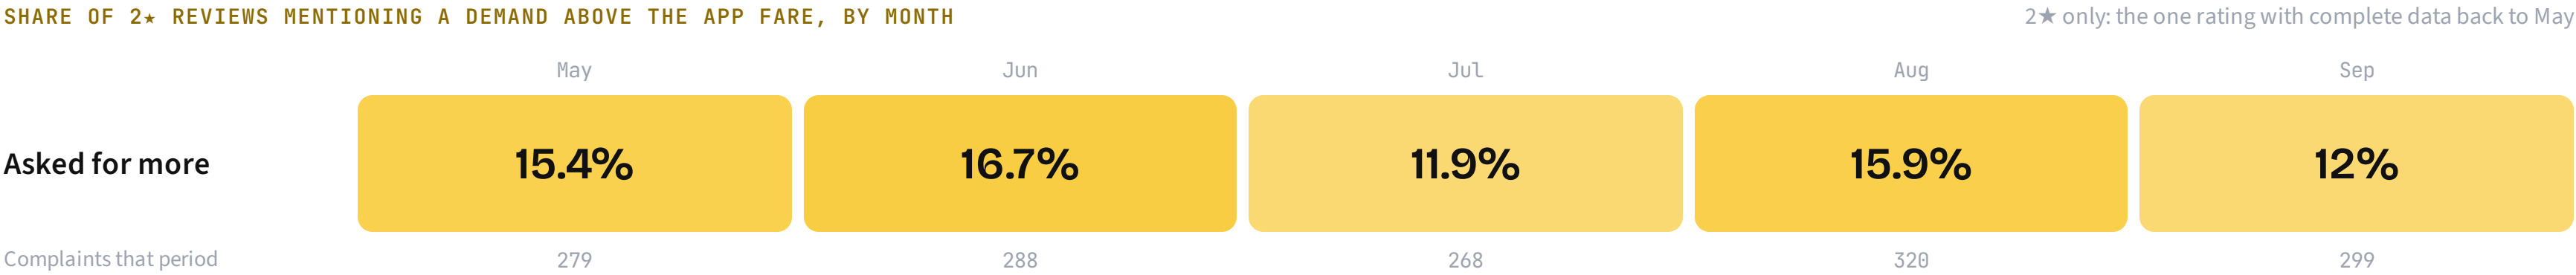

WHAT’S WORKING

Fewer complaints about cancellations than Uber: 19% of specific complaints against 27%. Riders mostly get a captain; the friction starts after.

“Why do not you take action when the captain asks for an extra charge?”

It has been steady for months, and riders say it happens after the booking is confirmed

A CALL AFTER ACCEPTING

“It is highly unprofessional to accept the booking and then call us demanding extra money because the destination is “far” or saying they will charge by the meter.”

1★ • 25 Sep 2026

AT THE DROP POINT

“Price shows 129 when ride started, he did not reach destination ... still asked for 139 rupees.”

2★ • 22 Sep 2026

NO WAY TO ACT ON IT

“Why do not you take action when the captain asks for an extra charge?”

CONTEXT • 16 SEP 2026

The Central Consumer Protection Authority fined Rapido ₹10 lakh over pre-ride tip prompts, and the government told ride apps to allow tips only after a ride. That covers what the app asks for. The reviews above are about what captains ask for in person.

Make the app fare the final fare, for riders and captains

#	CHANGE	WHAT IT DOES	FROM THE REVIEWS
01	Settle the fare before pickup	Show captains the drop point and full fare before they accept. Once accepted, the fare is locked.	“demanding extra money because the destination is ‘far’”
02	One tap: “Asked for extra”	A button in the live trip and on the receipt. Repeat reports lower a captain’s priority for new rides.	“Why do not you take action ...?”
03	A receipt that settles it	Default to in-app payment. For cash, the receipt shows the exact amount due and “You paid the app fare”.	“Price shows 129 ... still asked for 139”
04	Tips only after the ride	An optional tip at the end, in line with the 16 Sep order, gives captains a fair way to earn more.	CCPA order, 16 Sep 2026

HOW I’D KNOW IT WORKED

“Asked for extra” reports per 1,000 completed rides, by city and vehicle, every week.

Guardrail: captains’ ride acceptance rate doesn’t drop once fares are locked.

WHAT I CAN’T SEE

Rapido’s captain app and trip data. Some of this may already exist; treat these as starting points.
